Regions Bank serves as the successor trustee (the "Trustee") under a Trust Indenture dated as of December 1, 1996 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Indenture"), with the Health, Educational and Housing Facility Board of the County of Shelby, Tennessee (the "Issuer"). Pursuant to the Indenture, the Issuer issued its Multifamily Housing Revenue Bonds (The Corners Apartments Project), Series 1996A, Series 1996B, Series 1996C and Series 1996D (collectively, the "Bonds") issued by the Issuer in the original principal amount of $4,720,000. The Series B Bonds previously matured and have no amounts outstanding. Currently, $3,260,000 in principal amount of Series A Bonds remain outstanding, $160,000 in principal amount of Series C Bonds remain outstanding, and $500,000 in principal amount of Series D Bonds remain outstanding. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined in this notice shall have the meanings given them in the Indenture and the other Bond Documents.

The Bonds were issued to finance the acquisition and rehabilitation by CME – Corners, Inc., a Tennessee not-for-profit corporation ("CME Corners"), of a 200-unit multifamily residential apartment rental project known as the Corners Apartments (the "Project") located in Shelby County, Tennessee. CME Corners leases the Project from the Issuer pursuant to a Lease Agreement dated as of December 1, 1996 (the "Lease Agreement"), between the Issuer and CME Corners. In accordance with that certain Declaration of Restrictive Covenants and Regulatory Agreement dated as of December 1, 1996 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time), among the Issuer, the Trustee and CME Corners, certain percentages of the apartments must be rented to certain Qualified Tenants.

The Bonds are special limited obligations of the Issuer payable solely from the lease payments to be made by CME Corners under the Lease Agreement, and are secured by a deed of trust lien on the Project and its gross revenues and certain funds on deposit with the Trustee. The repayment of the Series C Bonds and the Series D Bonds is subordinate to the prior repayment in full of the Series A and Series B Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and the repayment of the Series D Bonds is subordinate to the prior repayment in full of the Series C Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

The Trustee has previously given notice to registered Bondholders (the "Holders") (i) of the occurrence of Events of Default under the Bond Documents; (ii) of the commencement of a lawsuit (Regions Bank, as Trustee v. CME – Comers, Inc., Case No. 06-cv-2239) before the Honorable Jon Phipps McCalla in the United States District Court for the Western District of Tennessee in Memphis (the "Court"), pursuant to which, among other things, the Court has appointed a receiver (the "Receiver") to take control of the Project and certain related collateral for the Bonds (the "Collateral"); (iii) that the Receiver determined to sell the Collateral; (iv) that the Court entered an order, dated September 1, 2006, establishing procedures for the Receiver to conduct a sale of the Collateral; (v) that the Receiver conducted a foreclosure sale of the Collateral and a simultaneous auction sale (the "Receiver Sale") of the Collateral on November 17, 2006, which Receiver Sale was confirmed by the Court's order, dated November 22, 2006, and which was consummated on November 29, 2006; (vi) that the Trustee established December 19, 2006 as the record date and December 29, 2006 as the distribution date, and that the proceeds of the Receiver Sale and certain other funds on hand have been distributed in accordance with the Court's orders and the Bond Documents; (vii) of a final hearing on February 16, 2007 on (a) the Trustee's Verified Motion and Memorandum of Law in Support of Motion for Trust Instruction Regarding Liquidation and Distribution of Series D Principal Reserve Account (the "Instruction Motion"), whereby the Trustee sought a trust instruction from the Court regarding distribution of the Series D Principal Reserve Account Investment in cash, less the costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) of liquidating the investment and of seeking such instruction, (b) the Receiver's final accounting (the "Final Accounting") and request for discharge (the "Receiver's Discharge Motion"), and (c) the Trustee's motion seeking dismissal of the lawsuit as concluded (the "Dismissal Motion"); (viii) that certain amounts, aggregating less than approximately $48,000, may be received from the Receiver on account of the Trustee's claim against the Collateral (the "Wind-Up Funds") as the receivership estate is wound up.

After the hearing on February 16, 2007, the Court entered an order (the "Instruction Order") granting the Instruction Motion and instructing the Trustee to reduce the Series D Principal Reserve Account Investment to cash, and to distribute the proceeds therefrom to the Series D Holders, after applying such Proceeds to the costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) of liquidating the investment and pursuing the Instruction Motion and Order (the "Net Proceeds"). In addition, the Court approved the Receiver's Final Accounting and the Receiver's Discharge Motion, and an order (the "Discharge Order") will be entered upon notice by the Receiver to the Court that the receivership estate has been fully and finally administered. The Court also approved the Dismissal Motion that the case be dismissed as concluded, but will not enter an order until after (i) the Receiver has fully administered the receivership estate, including distributing any Wind-Up Funds to the Trustee, and (ii) entry of the Discharge Order. The Trustee intends to distribute the Net Proceeds together with the Wind-Up Funds, less costs and expenses pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, in a single distribution, but the timing of such distribution is not certain. The Trustee will provide advance notice of such distribution.

Following a distribution of the Series D Principal Reserve Account Investment and the Wind-Up Fees, if any (with each item net of the Trustee's expenses, including without limitation attorneys' fees and expenses), the Trustee does not intend to take any further action to recover any amount owed on account of the Bonds, unless directed and indemnified by Bondholders. In connection with the last distribution from the Trust Estate, the Trustee will send one final Notice to Bondholders regarding such distribution. After that, the Trustee does not intend to provide any further communication with Bondholders and will treat its duties under the Bond Documents, at law or equity to be fully discharged and completed.

The Instruction Motion, the Receiver's Discharge Motion (including the Final Accounting), the Dismissal Motion, the Instruction Order, and this Notice, and previous and future notices to bondholders, will be made available at the following website: <http://www.wallerlaw.com/courtnotice.cfm>. The Bondholders should seek the advice of their own legal counsel and/or financial consultants regarding their individual rights under the Bond Documents.
